The letter typed in block style and with misspelled words and strike-overs, indicated that the writer had a fairly good command of the English language if not of the typewriter. The letter writer apparently was trying to say something else because I can't follow his line of thinking in view of the many statements I have heard commending the councilmen for the mature way they were handling the matter and also knowing that they have had continuous legal advice from more than one source throughout the entire chain of events. Our basic freedoms allow us all to voice our opinions openly without fear of reprisals and knowing the genuine concern of the council and Water Board as they went into this matter. I can only say that if this writer had a better suggestion, they would have grasped it like a drowning man grasps a straw.

The letter writer was "astonished that a city council could (1) hold secretive meetings (2) make accusations based on evidence of questionable merit (3) release accusations to the press, and last (4) hold a legal meeting to authorize an audit to see if there is proof to support the accusations." What do you think?

> Recently I started receiving the Troy Messenger from our neighboring Troy, Alabama. Some way or another we got off their mailing list several years ago and are just now getting back on it. They have a lot of interesting items in the daily paper. One I noted a few days ago bears repeating. It was a picture of several Japanese girls grabbing eels from a large container. It seems the Japanese have a festival each year where they eat the snake-like fish to restore energy sapped by dog days of summer. If it works, maybe some of us would be better off if we overcame our peculiarities and eat some ourselves.

Today (Thursday) is the final session of the 1973 Alabama Legislature. Many, many measures have been introduced with hopes that they will become law. Some of these you and consider good and some we consider bad. I hope that when polyurethane diaphragms the final tally is taken, more of the good bills pass than bad 22 inches in diameter-that bills. Keep your fingers crossed.

The BLAIR, NEBR. PILOT-TRIBUNE recently wrote: "What would you guess, if someone asked you to name the single category of goods or services that Americans spend the most on? Food? The basic issue is simple should unions have the right to some table workers and considers to not join a union would mock other recent action in the field of civil rights.

Unions contend that since they are required by law to represent all workers in a harmless do-good campaign to see that our corner to not join a union would mock other recent action in the field of civil rights.

Unions contend that since they are required by law to represent all workers may object to frequent and what he considers unnecessary strains and contend to not join a union would mock other recent action in the field of civil rights.

Unions contend that since they are required by law to represent all workers may object to frequent and what he considers unnecessary strains and the considers unnecessary strains

"Consumerism" within government is another matter. Compulsory government "consumerism" is armed with powers beyond those of any other government agency which has appeared on the American scene.

Should an individual have the right to not join a union if he so chooses.

The unions also argue that only only or exert all workers in a bargaining unit, all workers in that unit should pay their share of bargaining costs. The unions also argue that no properties the power of which has appeared on the American scene.

The highlight of Luverne's passing game came early in the second half when a ball tipped three times, once by a Luv-erne receiver and by two Elba defenders, was finally caught by Luverne halfback John Wiliams for a 40-yard gain. Luverne's leading gainer was for 60 yards rushing.

Following Elba's opening kickoff to Luverne, the Tig-ers were stunned by Luverne's ability to move the ball so well. Luverne quickly ran nine plays and picked up two first downs, but were stopped on their own 40 and had to punt.
Elba got the first break of the night as the ball came off the side of the kicker's foot and ended up as a 15-yard punt. The Tigers had the ball on their own 45. Elba then began a scoring drive of 11 plays with Charles Ellis scoring and Clive Collier kicking

EDITORIAL

It's great to be back -- back in school, back with our fri evis and back with the ZCHS Rebel News. This year brportunities. We are glad to welcome as our Superintendent of Education for Coffee County, Mr. James Baker, Mr. Johnny Vaughan and Mr. Charles Saunders have also joine his staff as Assistant Superin. tendent and Director of Building and Grounds and Counseling, and already we are receiving the benefits of their ideas and efforts. We have several new teachers here at ZC whom we plan to interview in the near future.

This year we're making a change in the ZCHS Rebel News and will have three new editors each month to be responsible for the newspage. urge anyone interested to ease help.
